Certain starters against the Presbyterian Blue Stockings in today's opening game will be the members of the quintette pictured above. At the upper left is Tom Zoretic, who will start at the right halfback position. Duke Dulaney, the Ashland powerhouse who cavorted in the role of halfback last season, has been moved to fullback and will start there today. Curley Pittman, from Mayfield, will be at right end. Sandy Sanders of Harrodsburg, will hold down the pivot post, and Johnny Taylor, Glasgow, will start at guard.

These five Hilltoppers, representing half the number of seniors on this year's squad, have been mainstays of the Western team for the past two years. Their play at Peoria, Illinois, last Saturday, when the Hilltoppers turned back Bradley Tech 13-0, indicates that their 1940 record will be even better than that of 1939 and 1938. Zoretic and Dulaney accounted for Western's scoring against the Indians while Pittman, Sanders, and Taylor were in on practically every play.

Lead On To Victory--Western
Citizens National Bank

Nope, that's not a basketball that Vernon "Duke" Dulaney is handling at the left. It is really the old pigskin, and a few seconds after the picture was snapped, it rested in the arms of a receiver 40 yards away.
